2. There are rumors among naval officers with regard to the expected change in the appointment of the Naval Commander-in-Chief. It is said that this post is to be given to the present Naval Chief of Staff, Jan Wisniewski. Jan Wisniewski was transferred about four years ago from the ground forces, with the rank of colonel, to the navy and was recently promoted to Rear Admiral.
3. It is also rumored that six senior Soviet officers, now posted to the naval command, are to be sent back to the USSR and their posts taken over by Polish officers.
